

XM Radio's weather and traffic provide continuous 24 service that I do not have to wait for. While with WTOP, I would have to wait for commercials and other programming before getting to this important information. Also, WTOP and other broadcast stations never give the comprehensive coverage that XM Radio's service gives. It would be sad if the FCC would cause a decrease in traffic information and hence increase in traffic jams in the Washington, DC Metropolitan area.